SEARCHED INDEXED

Handwritten text in a cuneiform script, likely Sumerian or Akkadian, inscribed on a single line across a rectangular tablet. The text is arranged in approximately 12 columns, separated by vertical lines. The script is dark and appears to be etched or written in a dark ink. The tablet itself is made of a light-colored material, possibly clay or stone, and shows signs of wear and discoloration.

Vertical text on the right edge of the tablet, likely a marginal note or a continuation of the main text. It is written in the same cuneiform script as the main body of text.
